Welcome 2010!

from President Rick Lang

Happy New Year, The 1st day of the year was beautiful, a perfect day for the Rose Parade. If you were watching, Rotary was the first float and it won the award for Best Float under 35' Volunteer Service Organization. We had a wonderful Holiday party to end the year, Thanks John Campbell. Thanks Brendon and your crew for preparing and sending 26 boxes to our troops in Afghanistan.

We start our 2nd half with a Club Assembly. We will reviewing our goals and hearing from our Directors. We have some changes, gained new members and said goodbye to a few. Our club continues to be vibrant, full of life dedicated to serving. The New Year brings expectations of growth and renewed spirit in our Rotary mission. Thanks to all of you for making my 1st half full of enjoyment. The Future of Rotary is in Your Hands.
